

5 Tried and True Realities about Bullying

1

Young people who are taught how to appropriately express their feelings and manage pain do not bully.

2

Young people who have a safe relationship with a caring adult are more likely to ask for help if they are being bullied.

3

Young people who understand the power of their voice use it to speak out against bullying... regardless of who likes it and who doesn't like it.

4

Young people who live in a loving, close knit family environment get that they don't have the right to screw up someone else's life.

5

Young people who recognize their potential and understand their purpose work to improve the condition of the world...one positive decision at a time. In other words, they don't have time to bully.
