

8 Things that Are Equally as Important as Love

Often, when we think about dating, intimate relationships, or marriage the one word that is synonymous with all three is LOVE. It's almost as if we are programmed to believe that LOVE is the core element that must be present for a relationship to exist or thrive. While LOVE is in fact an important component of a healthy relationship, you might be surprised to know that there are other components that are equally as important. Actually, the presence of these other components really fuels the LOVE and takes the relationship to a whole new level. Check them out and see what you think.
